LOUDOUN SELECTED AS U.S. HEADQUARTERS FOR EUROPEAN DISTRIBUTOR MIL-TEK USA

Green Company Distributes High-End Balers & Compactors from 14,000 Square Foot Office and Distribution Facility

Loudoun County, Virginia USA, Tuesday, May 17, 2011 – Loudoun County announced today that it is adding another international firm to its growing portfolio of international businesses. Loudoun currently is home to 76 international firms. “Mil-tek USA is a perfect complement to Loudoun’s business community. They are leading the way in sustainable recycling solutions, which dove-tails nicely with Loudoun’s sustainability initiatives,” states Loudoun Economic Development Director Thomas Flynn. Mil-tek USA occupies 14,000 square feet of office and distribution space in Ashburn, Virginia in the Beaumeade Corporate Park. The firm currently employs five employees and Mil-tek USA President and CEO Brian Wingfield projects employment will reach 200 by the end of 2014.

Wingfield discussed the reasons why he chose Loudoun as Mil-tek USA’s headquarters location. “It came down to two things: the place and the people. Loudoun is a leading community for businesses for many reasons, including those that attract a quality workforce; excellent schools, great retail and recreational amenities, and a broad array of housing choices. The professionals with the Department of Economic Development were instrumental in our location selection. From the beginning of the process to permitting to occupancy, they were proactively helpful and professional. Finally, the business community is supportive and interested in sustainability, which is core to our business,” Wingfield stated.

Business Development Officer for Loudoun Economic Development Buddy Rizer noted, “I am pleased to see Loudoun’s reputation as a location for international business continuing to reap the reward of having high-caliber companies such as Mil-tek USA choose Loudoun for their U.S. headquarters.”

About Mil-tek USA
